Welcome to our newest residents – As the office has been largely unattended for several weeks, the editor has not been advised of the names of our newest residents. We welcome recent arrivals to GGLV.

News from the Committee - The Residents' Committee is still seeking a resident to become our Secretary. Please contact any committee member for more information.

Insurance - Following confirmation from LSA, any event that is published on the monthly planner is covered by their insurance. If an event is booked and approved by the Village Coordinator after the monthly planner has been published, this will also be covered. Just being on the notice board does not provide cover.

A reminder that Lesley A, Unit 257, is the Event Coordinator. If you want to organise an event or function, other than the regular activities, please contact Lesley A, Unit 257, to have it listed on the monthly and annual planners.

To enable accurate information on the December planner can any resident responsible for convening/ organising any regular activities please let me know by 20th October when you might suspend and resume your activity over Christmas and New Year. Please leave a note in my letter box or email me. I am away in November and need to complete the December planner before I leave (or you won't know what's on!).

Thanks Lesley, email laaw1@esc.net.au or Unit 257.

Tuesday Men's Social Group – A group of us have been gathering in the Sports Centre for several years now, every week from around 12.30pm. Just a casual, friendly catch-up where we can get to know one another a little bit more. BYO drinks and nibbles. All welcome. Just turn up. Roger U 338
